

Lakeside Band Students Excel at Rolling Hills Middle School

Lakeside alumni Tony Moller and Marin Rosenquist showcased their talents with solo performances during Spring Band Concert at Rolling Hills Middle School. Tony and Marin, both seventh graders, are part of the 35 member Jazz Band that performed along with the Beginning, Intermediate and Advanced Bands during the April 8th evening event. Nearly half of the approximately 45 Lakeside students at Rolling Hills Middle School participate in band.

Music is a strong tradition at Lakeside with an emphasis on learning to make music using the Orff-Schulwerk program. Lakeside has done well giving students a taste for music - while Lakeside students represent 10 percent of the total band population, they represent a little less than 4 percent of the total RHMS population.

All Lakeside students enjoy weekly vocal and instrumental music classes made possible through the financial support of the Lakeside School Community Foundation and the PTA.

Lakeside students in band at RHMS include: Beginning Band – Emmy Delany, Emily Johnson, Jamie Lenihan, Zane Schmidlen. Intermediate Band – Claire Farmer, William Huang, Shannon Jimenez, Alina Korfike, Adrian Lemke, Tony Moller, Kai Nelson, Giulianne Pate, Taylor Royan, Amanda Charbonneau. Advanced Band – Naomi Herman, Marin Rosenquist, Alexandra Hunsinger, Benjamin Hunsinger, Katherine Hunsinger, Tina Truong. Jazz Band – Tony Moller, Marin Rosenquist.
