

Maritza Tamayo-Sarver

J.D., Case Western Reserve University;
B.A. in Human Biology and a Minor in Psychology with an emphasis on Child Development, Stanford University

Ms. Tamayo-Sarver practices Family-Based Immigration Law on a part-time basis, and is a dedicated and full-time counselor and mediator for her four children, ranging in ages between 6 and 17.

She brings extensive experience in advising city council committees and employees for the City of Cleveland within the Division of Water and City Airport, and provided in-house counsel to federal officers and officials for the Los Angeles/Long Beach Seaport and Ports of Entry for U.S. Customs and Border Protection within the Department of Homeland Security.

She has been a Project Cornerstone volunteer since 2012 for our school and believes that greater emphasis on the socio-emotional skill development of children is needed to create the strong leaders of tomorrow.
